

In the Bag

■ Welcome out-of-towners with guest bags full of Central Florida goodies. — Kristen Manieri

Stylish Sips

Have Orlando's Dragonfly Custom Design customize refreshing water bottles with wedding details or unique artwork. From $3 per bottle; dragonflycustomdesign.com

The Buzz

Go above and bee-yond traditional sweet treats with orange blossom honey from Winter Park Honey. From $9.95; winterparkhoney.com

Cookie Craze

Satisfy midnight munchies with customized wedding cookies from The Cookie Cousins in College Park. From $1.50; thecookiecousins.com

All the Stops

Add a token they'll use for years to come: Orlando artisan Kim Barnes will custom design wine stoppers with crystals, beads and complementing wedding colors. From $35; kimbarnesdesigns.com

Crafty Containers

Have Dogwood Blossom Stationery & Invitation Studio near Cocoa Beach pack up all your goodies in bags or boxes designed with your wedding theme and colors. Price upon request; dogwoodblossomstationery.com

Clean Slate

Slip in some of Orlando-based Zen Soaps' indulgent bath luxuries, which are handmade with pure natural oils and herbs. From $3; zensoaps.com

Local Libations

Treat your guests to a bottle of Pink Crescendo from Lakeridge Winery in Clermont. $16.99; lakeridgewinery.com

Tea Time

Spice up their morning routine with a variety of teas, like the Good Morning Tea Sampler, at The Spice & Tea Exchange in Winter Park. $14.38; spiceandtea.com

MORE GUEST BAG MUST-HAVES

From Bridal Council member and Phoenix Event Group Founder Jamie M. O'Donnell.

- A local map
- Sunscreen
- Best restaurants list
- Attractions brochure
- Weekend itinerary
- Free visitor center goodies
- Contact card

“Including a personal, heartfelt welcome and thank-you note makes guests feel appreciated.”

—Jamie M. O'Donnell, Phoenix Event Group

